PROGRAM IN ARCHAEOLOGY, TECHNOLOGY AND HISTORICAL STRUCTURES; DEPT. OF HISTORY; DEPT. OF RELIGION & CLASSICS

UR SUMMER PROGRAMS IN ARCHAEOLOGY

Get U of R credit for participating in archaeological fieldwork in Bermuda or Italy!

Learn historical archaeology in Bermuda working on 17th- and 18th-century house sites. Be a part of a five-week field school in St. George's, Bermuda, which will train you in archival research and field excavation methods while we use a 400-year-old colony as our extended classroom. No archaeological experience is needed to take the 6-credit HIS 299 course. Those with prior training can take HIS 399 and develop specialized supervision, GIS, and artifact identification skills.

...Or join the month-long San Martino Archaeological Field School in Torano, Italy and get first-hand experience excavating at an archaeological site with remains from the prehistoric, Roman, and medieval periods. Included are guided visits to museums and sites in Rome and elsewhere in central Italy. This program also offers you the opportunity to experience the people, culture, and food of Italy off the beaten tourist path. 6 hours of course credit in Classics or Religion. No previous experience or knowledge of Italian is necessary.
