DEPARTMENT OF ENGLISH PRIZE FOR HUMOR WRITING

- Open to current University of Rochester undergraduates and Take 5 students.
- Entries must have been written for a course, event or student publication at U of R (River or Eastman campus). It's fine if they've been revised since you first turned them in.
- Eligible work (you may enter in multiple genres):
 - Nonfiction: one piece of up to 5,000 words, double spaced. Anything fact-based, including opinion pieces & personal essays.
 - Fiction: one piece of up to 5,000 words, double spaced. Anything made up, including short stories, parodies and other forms of satire.
 - Poetry: Up to 5 poems. A small group of short poems, haiku or limericks, written under an umbrella title would count as one poem.
 - Drama: one piece of up to 5,000 words, double spaced.

Submit digitally to: URLiteraryCompetition@gmail.com.

Please send in word or PDF format.

In the body of the email include: HUMOR PRIZE, name, UR ID, Major, Minor, Class year, genre, and name of the course, event, or publication for which it was originally written.
