Dear Redacted,

I am the Title IX Coordinator at the University of Rochester and I recently received a copy of a letter sent to several administrators at the University of Rochester regarding concerns with inappropriate behavior from a faculty member in the BCS department here at the University of Rochester.

Your name was included as a signatory. I would like to make myself available to hear any and all concerns you may have had (or still have). Can we find some time to connect?

Good afternoon Redacted ,

I am the Title IX Coordinator at the University of Rochester and I recently received a copy of a letter sent to several administrators at the University regarding concerns with harassment and inappropriate sexual comments from a faculty member in the BCS department. Your name was included in the signature line.

I understand that you provided information to Kate Nearpass during an investigation into this matter in the spring. Is there any new information and/or concerns that you would like to share? If so, can we find some time to connect?
