ANTHONY AWARD

Jane Possee Honored by University

LIFETIME ACHIEVEMENT: Jane Possee, a longtime athletics administrator and former women's basketball, lacrosse, and field hockey coach, received the University's Susan B. Anthony Lifetime Achievement Award in February. The award, presented by the Susan B. Anthony Center for Women's Leadership, recognizes members of the University community who have achieved significant professional stature and have used their experiences and skills to help other women advance as leaders. "We are proud to honor Jane for helping change the landscape for female athletes on our campus and for supporting and guiding countless student athletes over the years," said Catherine Cerulli, director of the Anthony Center.

with the first varsity eight boat. All eight rowers, along with the coxswain, return.

Men's tennis: A four-match trip to the West Coast awaits during spring break. Rochester was 4-0 against Division III opposition early in the season. In late February, the Yellowjackets defeated Oneonta, 9-0, then lost to Division I Colgate the next afternoon.

Women's tennis: A spring break trip to the West Coast will be a test for a young team that has only two seniors. Rochester's fall schedule was filled with tournament-style competition. ®
