BY THE NUMBERS

19 Students who have won multiple Academic All-America awards.

2 Students who have won the award three times: Patty Rupp (women's swimming and diving in 1985, 1986, and 1987); and Brian Kowalski (football in 1999, 2000, and 2001).

2 Students who have won Academic All-American of the Year: Tanya Klebe (volleyball, 1997); and Nate Micklos (men's soccer, 2005)

HIGH FIVE(HUNDRED): Women's basketball coach Jim Scheible entered the Rochester record books this winter, leading the Yellowjackets to his 500th victory as a coach.

Women's Coach Notches 500th Win

Jim Scheible has a new entry in the Rochester record books. The head coach of the women's basketball team passed the 500-win mark with an 83-79 overtime victory over NYU in January. With that win, Scheible's record over 27 years of coaching was 500-222. At that point in his 19 seasons at Rochester, Scheible's record was 359-151.

The victory was also Rochester's 10th consecutive victory and raised the Yellowjackets' record to 15-1 overall, 5-0 in the UAA. Rochester was ranked No. 7 in the D3hoops.com poll and in the poll conducted by the Women's Basketball Coaches Association.

MIT Coach Named to Lead Yellowjackets Football

The award-winning head coach of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology's football program has been named head football coach at Rochester.

Chad Martinovich, whose nine seasons leading the Engineers included a conference championship, becomes the Yellowjackets' 31st coach. He will lead the team for the season opener on September 1 at Case Western Reserve University.

Credited with building a regularly contending program at MIT, Martinovich was named the 2014 Coach of the Year for the New England Football Conference, New England Football Writers College Division Coach of the Year, ECAC Coach of the Year, and the American Football Coaches Association Region I Division III Coach of the Year.

During his nine years in Cambridge, MIT football players have earned 17 CoSIDA Academic All-America awards, including seven selections to the First Team. The MIT quarterback was named the 2017 CoSIDA Division III Football Academic All-American of the Year. He has coached two All-Americans, 16 All-Region players, four All-New England performers, and 63 All-Conference players at MIT.

After graduating from Hobart College, where he played football, Martinovich embarked on a coaching career that has taken him to Bucknell, Hamilton, the University at Albany, Swarthmore, and Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute.

NEW COACH: Chad Martinovich debuts this fall as Rochester's football coach.
