

2023 Summer Housing

FACT SHEET

Summer Housing Dates: May 15, 2023 – August 5, 2023

Do More—Learn More—Be More

Please read all information thoroughly.
Once signed and submitted, your summer housing contract is binding.

We will be accepting summer housing and dining contracts starting Monday, April 3, 2023.

Limited air-conditioned (AC) spaces will be available for summer housing. Priority for kitchen and AC spaces will go to students who submit summer housing contracts by the May 1 priority deadline and will be staying for the full summer session.

GENERAL INFORMATION

Summer housing officially begins Monday, May 15 and ends Saturday, August 5.

We anticipate that summer housing will begin with all current students remaining in their current spaces and moves will occur the weekend of May 19. Students are housed primarily in double rooms in buildings without air condition.

The University is not responsible for your personal property. You should consider obtaining insurance coverage for your personal property.

ELIGIBILITY AND FEES

Eligibility for Summer Housing is specifically contingent upon your affiliation with the University of Rochester (UR).

You must be registered as a full-time UR undergraduate student for the 2023-2024 academic year or be with a UR department, academic program, or faculty member to be eligible for summer housing.

You do not need to be registered for summer classes to participate in summer housing. Seniors who graduate in May are eligible to remain for summer housing 2023, and will be billed via their student account.

LOCATIONS, RATES, AND IMPORTANT DATES

Summer Housing locations are Susan B. Anthony Hall, Genesee Hall, and Brooks Crossing

The summer service desk is in Susan B. Anthony Hall.

Priority for air-conditioned space will go first to special programs, second to those with an approved medical need (who must have an approved medical accommodation on file with Residential Life), third to those who are staying the full session, and then will be assigned as space permits by class year (rising seniors getting priority).

As demand often exceeds availability, students should be prepared that they may not receive an air-conditioned space.

Students requiring air-conditioning due to a medical condition must have an approved accommodation supporting that request on file with the Office of Disability Services and Support.

Students are required to move out of their current housing into summer housing the weekend of May 19.

APPLICATION PROCESS

An Online Summer Housing Application/Contract must be submitted by 5 p.m., May 1, 2023, to remain for summer housing. For consideration of placement in limited AC space, the application must be submitted by May 1 and the student must be staying for the full summer session.

CANCELLATION AND CONTRACT CHANGES

A student may cancel their contract at least 10 days prior to their scheduled start date by contacting us at summerhousing@reslife.rochester.edu without penalty. Failure to give adequate notice of a cancellation will result in a charge of $185 (first week rate).

Students select sessions and are obligated to pay for the entire session they have requested.

If you cancel your contract less than ten days prior to the start of your session, you will be charged for the following:

- Any time you have already spent in summer housing
- A cancellation fee of $185 (one week's stay)

If you are not 100% sure of your contract length, it is much better to select a shorter stay and then add weeks then try to subtract them. It is possible to add an additional week either to a session or a short-term stay. The first change is at no charge.

Summer Housing ends on Saturday, August 5, 2023, at noon.

PAYMENT INFORMATION

1. Only UR students enrolled for the fall 2023 semester are eligible for summer housing charges to be posted to their UR student bill.
