

FRONT OF HOUSE ANNOUNCEMENTS

Hello and welcome [to the Smith Theatre and] to this performance. At this time, we ask you to turn off all cellphones and other noise-making devices. As a courtesy to the actors and to your fellow audience members, we'd like to remind you that all recording, photography, texting, and other social media interactions are strictly forbidden during the performance. Please also take a moment now to locate the fire exits and, in the unlikely event of an emergency, we ask you to remain seated until given directions by the Stage or Front-of-House Manager. Thank you for your attention and enjoy the show.

For productions that need the audience cleared completely at intermission/s:

Hello and welcome [to the Smith Theatre and] to this performance. At this time, we ask you to turn off all cellphones and other noise-making devices. As a courtesy to the actors and to your fellow audience members, we'd like to remind you that all recording, photography, texting, and other social media interactions are strictly forbidden during the performance. Please also take a moment now to locate the fire exits and, in the unlikely event of an emergency, we ask you to remain seated until given directions by the Stage or Front-of-House Manager. In order to facilitate the changeover between acts, we ask that you kindly vacate your seats at the intermission.

and either:

You may leave your belongings in the theatre.

or

Please be sure to take all your belongings with you.

then:

Thank you for your attention and enjoy the show.