ACADEMIC HONESTY POLICY

All assignments and activities associated with this course must be performed in accordance with the University of Rochester's Academic Honesty Policy. More information is available at: www.rochester.edu/college/honesty

- You are responsible for knowing the College of Arts, Sciences and Engineering and course policies on academic honesty. Talk to me if you have any questions.
- I take violations of academic honesty seriously. Suspected violations will be pursued vigorously following the College's procedures for suspected cases of academic dishonesty.

Some Categories of Academic Dishonesty

- Plagiarism: Representing someone else's work as your own
- Cheating: Using unauthorized information or sources for an assignment or exam.
- Assisting others in academic dishonesty
- Falsifying Information
- Interfering with others' access to legitimate course materials
- Using computer- and other machine-generated responses or work, including AI (Chat GPT etc.) and representing them as your original work

This is not an all-inclusive list. For more information, consult the student handbook, talk to the instructor, and visit the URLs below:
http://www.rochester.edu/college/honesty/undergraduates.html
http://www.rochester.edu/college/honesty