The University of Rochester Health Care Plans offer coverage to help meet the health care needs of you and your family. This chart is designed to supplement the 2017 Health Program Guide for Medicare-Eligible Retirees, which can be found at www.rochester.edu/benefits/retirement/post-retirement or by calling 1-585-275-2084 to obtain a copy.

2017 Health Care Plans at-a-Glance for Medicare-Eligible Retirees
The University of Rochester is committed to providing comprehensive health care benefits to help meet the needs of you and your family. In addition, we want to help you become better informed about how the health care plans work so you can make good choices — both in choosing the right plan and then using it well.

This Health Care Plans Comparison Chart is designed to supplement the 2017 Health Program Guide for Medicare-Eligible Retirees and highlights each of the health care plans that are available to you. We encourage you to review this chart carefully so that you can make the right choices that fit the needs of you and your family.

Enrollment

If you decide that you want to make a change in your coverage, you need to submit completed enrollment form(s) to the Benefits Office, 44 Celebration Drive, Suite 2300, PO Box 270453, Rochester, NY 14627. You will need to complete two enrollment forms if you wish to change your own and your spouse’s health care plan coverage. Enrollment forms can be obtained from the Benefits Office.

Your enrollment form(s) must be received:
- By the end of the open enrollment period*, or
- Within 30 days of a qualifying event*.

*Enrollment applications for the Medicare Advantage plans (Preferred Gold Standard HMO-POS, Preferred Gold HMO-POS, GoldAnywhere PPO, and USA Care PPO) must be completed prior to the effective date of coverage. If you are moving from a Medicare Advantage plan to the University Complementary Care Plan with Major Medical, in addition to the enrollment form(s), you also must complete the disenrollment form(s) prior to the effective date of disenrollment.
