

An aerial photograph of a university campus, likely the University of Georgia, featuring a prominent central building with a large dome. The campus is surrounded by dense green trees, and the scene is captured in the warm, golden light of late afternoon or early morning. The text 'VOLUNTEERS in PARTNERSHIP CONFERENCE' is overlaid in the upper right corner in a large, white, sans-serif font. The word 'in' is in a smaller, italicized font. Below the main title, the dates 'APRIL 13-14, 2018' are displayed in a smaller, white, sans-serif font.
