85th Annual Boar's Head Student Host Applications

One of the University's oldest and most beloved traditions, the Boar's Head Dinner began in 1934. The dinner recalls the spirit of English court dinners, such as those served at Queens College, Oxford University, during the Middle Ages.

Student Leaders are invited to host tables at the 85th Annual Boar's Head Dinner on Thursday, December 5, 2019 at 7 PM in the Feldman Ballroom, Douglass Commons. Student host duties include inviting a faculty/staff member to co-host the table with you, greeting the guests at your table, and alerting the servers when the table needs more food. (Please note that student hosts will not be responsible for serving food.)

To indicate interest and learn more about host responsibilities, fill out the Boar's Head Student Host Application form. The form will open Tuesday, October 1, 2019 at 9:00 am. Submissions will be accepted until all limited spots are filled. For more information, please email the Student Programming Board Boar's Head Chair, Ethan Yang.
