Developer Student Club University of Rochester

ARTICLE I - ESTABLISHMENT

We the students, faculty, and staff of the University of Rochester hereby establish the Developer Student Club of the University of Rochester and enact this constitution for its governance. Failure to follow this constitution could result in penalties or revocation of Students' Association recognition of this organization.

ARTICLE II - MISSION STATEMENT

The purpose of Developer Student Club (DSC) is to help students bridge the gap between theory and practice in computer science in general and software engineering in particular. DSC wishes to impact and empower students through understanding, using, and reflecting about technology in the real world.

ARTICLE III - MEMBERSHIP

SECTION ONE - MEMBERSHIP

- A. Eligibility - All Students' Association (SA) members shall be eligible for membership. An SA Member is a University of Rochester undergraduate of the College who has paid their SA activities fee. All members and associate members shall be listed on the organization's Campus Community Connection site. Membership is automatically renewed yearly unless the member graduates, requests to cancel their membership, or fails to meet membership requirements.
- B. Definition of active member – All active members must support the purpose of the organization, uphold the values of the organization, contribute constructively to the programs and activities offered by the organization, attend general meetings, abide by the constitution and subsequent official organizational documents, respect the rights of peers and fellow members, abide by University of Rochester policies, procedures, and guidelines. Active members must attend at least 50% of the meetings and events of the club per semester.
- C. Definition of associate member - All University of Rochester faculty, staff, graduate students and Eastman students shall be eligible for associate membership but not eligible to hold an officer position.
