University Honors

Thomas B. (Tommy) Evans '99

Honorary Doctor of Letters Commencement Speaker

Tommy Evans is managing editor for editorial review at National Public Radio, where he is responsible for ensuring that the network maintains and strengthens its status as a trusted source of news and information for the American public. He previously served as CNN's vice president of international newsgathering and London bureau chief. He was a double major at Rochester, pursuing studies in political science and studio arts. He received a master's degree in international politics from London's School for Oriental and African Studies.

Young-Kee Kim '90 (PhD) Honorary Doctor of Science

Young-Kee Kim is the Albert A. Michelson Distinguished Service Professor of Physics at the University of Chicago, where she has been a faculty member since 2002. She also serves as interim director of Fermi National Accelerator Laboratory, the country's only national laboratory dedicated to high-energy physics. Internationally known for her research in experimental particle physics, Kim has been recognized with Korea's top science award, has served as president of the American Physical Society, and has been named one of "20 Young Scientists to Watch" by Discover magazine. After receiving her PhD from Rochester, she was a scientist at Lawrence Berkeley National Laboratory and a faculty member at the University of California, Berkeley.

Kate Hidalgo '25 Undergraduate Speaker

As a member of the Class of 2025, Kate Hidalgo is a candidate for a double major in political science and business. As a first-year, first-generation college student, she was named a Handler Scholar—Rochester's premier scholarship program, endowed in 2007 by Board of Trustees Chair Rich Handler'83 and his wife, Martha—recognizing leadership and academic excellence. Hildago has served as Class Council president and as Senior Giving cochair. She has also been a student government senator, secretary of the Minority Business Alliance (MBA), a mentor in the University's Investment Banking Club and MBA's Rise Together program, as well as an ambassador for Latino U College Access.

Ignacio Gustin '25 (PhD) Graduate Speaker

Ignacio Gustin is a candidate for a PhD in chemistry. While a student, he conducted research on the quantum properties of molecules as a member of chemistry professor Ignacio Franco's group. A recipient of the 2024 Outstanding Graduate Student Award from the Department of Chemistry and the Messersmith Dissertation Fellowship from the University, Gustin also served as a coleader of the University's Association of Latin American Students and is a graduate ambassador, providing peer-to-peer support for current and prospective graduate students.

Alexander Levitan '63M (MD) and Lucy Levitan

George Eastman Medal

Alexander and Lucy Levitan are generous philanthropists who have provided scholarship and academic programming support for students at some of the nation's leading medical schools and academic medical centers. Based in the Minneapolis-St. Paul area, Alexander is a retired internist and oncologist, and, together, he and Lucy own and operate A&L Management Co. Their support for medical students at the University includes the Levitan Family Endowed Scholarship at the School of Medicine and Dentistry, the Alexander and Lucy Levitan Endowment for Medical Student Research Fellowships, and a fund for international scholars. They are parents of a member of the Class of 1996.

Lee Koonce '96E (MM) Frederick Douglass Medal

Lee Koonce is a nationally recognized musician and educator who has focused his professional life on developing and leading artistic programs for members of communities who have not traditionally been represented in classical music. From 2016 to 2024, he served as president and artistic director of the Gateways Music Festival, a long-running partnership with the University's Eastman School of Music. Before his roles at Eastman, Koonce served as executive director of Ballet Hispanico and Third Street Music School Settlement in New York City, executive director of Sherwood Conservatory of Music in Chicago, and director of community relations for the Chicago Symphony Orchestra.

José A. Scheinkman '74 (PhD)

Rochester Distinguished Scholar Award

One of the nation's most highly regarded economists, José Scheinkman is the Charles and Lynn Zhang Professor of Economics at Columbia University. He also holds appointments as the Theodore Wells '29 Professor of Economics (emeritus) at Princeton University and as a research associate at the National Bureau of Economic Research. His scholarship has helped shape the modern understanding of financial markets as well as other fields by applying ideas of mathematical economics to analyze complex social science challenges. Internationally recognized, he is an elected member of the National Academy of Sciences, the American Academy of Arts and Sciences, and other leading academic societies and organizations.

UNIVERSITY OF ROCHESTER

Jeff Campbell '02E (DMA)

Edward Peck Curtis Award for Excellence in Undergraduate Teaching

Bassist Jeff Campbell is a professor and chair of the Department of Jazz Studies and Contemporary Media at the University's Eastman School of Music. A member of Eastman's faculty since 1997, Campbell maintains an active schedule as a performing and recording artist. He has performed at such European musical events as the Nice, Montreux, North Sea, Riga, and Parnu Jazz Festivals and on Marian McPartland's Piano Jazz program on National Public Radio.

Amanda Larracuente

Edward Peck Curtis Award for Excellence in Undergraduate Teaching

Amanda Larracuente is the Nathaniel and Helen Wisch Professor of Biology in the University's School of Arts & Sciences, where she also serves as associate chair of the Department of Biology. A member of the faculty since 2015, Larracuente conducts research in evolutionary genetics and genomics and how properties of DNA influence the genome of organisms. To help students explore the intersection of biology, statistics, and computer science, Larracuente developed a curriculum in applied genomics. She received her PhD from Cornell University.

Sarah Marlowe '13E (PhD)

G. Graydon Curtis '58 and Jane W. Curtis Award for Nontenured Faculty Teaching

Focusing her research on counterpoint, fugue, and other areas of music analysis, Sarah Marlowe joined the faculty of the University's Eastman School of Music in 2020 as an assistant professor of music theory. As a faculty member at New York University before joining Eastman, she was recognized with NYU's Steinhardt Teaching Excellence Award. While studying for her PhD at Rochester, she received the University's Edward Peck Curtis Award for Excellence in Teaching by a Graduate Student.

Christopher Marshall '16 (PhD)

G. Graydon Curtis '58 and Jane W. Curtis Award for Nontenured Faculty Teaching

Christopher Marshall is an assistant professor of physics, joining the University's School of Arts & Sciences in 2020 after a fellowship at the Lawrence Berkeley National Laboratory in Berkeley, California. An experimental high-energy physicist, he has a leadership role in designing an international experiment to measure oscillations among subatomic particles, research that may help explain the evolution of the universe.

Sobhit Singh

G. Graydon Curtis '58 and Jane W. Curtis Award for Nontenured Faculty Teaching

Sobhit Singh joined Rochester's faculty in 2022 as an assistant professor of mechanical engineering in the University's Hajim School of Engineering & Applied Sciences. One focus of his research includes the investigation of materials at the subatomic level that may help researchers design novel materials that have practical applications. Before joining Rochester, he held a fellowship at Rutgers University.

Peter Shrager

Lifetime Achievement in Graduate Education Award

Joining the University's faculty in 1971, Peter Shrager has led influential research on the interaction of specific types of brain cells for more than five decades as a faculty member in the University's School of Medicine and Dentistry. Currently a professor emeritus in the Department of Neuroscience, he has earned recognition among colleagues, medical school leaders, and graduate and doctoral students for his dedication as a teacher and mentor. Since 2017, the Department of Neuroscience has presented an annual award in his name to recognize outstanding service to the Rochester neuroscience community.

Samantha Daley

William H. Riker University Award for Excellence in Graduate Teaching

As an associate professor at the Warner School of Education and Human Development, Samantha Daley holds appointments in the school's program areas of teaching and curriculum, counseling and human development, and education policy. She also coordinates Warner's Quantitative Consulting Services, a program in which advanced doctoral students support peers in quantitative methods and analysis. One focus of Daley's research explores how to design learning environments for students with learning disabilities. Her work has received funding from the National Science Foundation, the US Department of Education, and other public and private organizations.
