INSTRUCTIONS

The FAFSA that was submitted for the 2023-2024 academic year is missing a signature from the student and/or parent. Please read the information listed below carefully. Both the student and a parent must then sign and date this form. A scanned email or mailed copy of the form can be sent to the Financial Aid Office, as an original signature is not mandatory. Please be aware that until this form is returned, your financial aid application cannot be processed by the Financial Aid Office.

By signing this application you agree:

- that federal and/or state student financial aid will only be used to pay the cost of attending an institution of higher education
- that the student is not in default on a federal student loan or has made satisfactory arrangements to repay it
- that the student does not owe money back on a federal student grant or has made satisfactory arrangements to repay it
- that the student will notify our school if they default on a federal student loan
- that the student will not receive a Federal Pell Grant for more than one school for the same period of time
- to provide information that will verify the accuracy of your completed FAFSA, such as federal or state income tax forms that you have filed or are required to file
- that the Secretary of Education has the authority to verify information reported on this application with the Internal Revenue Service and other federal agencies
- that if you sign any document related to the federal student aid programs electronically using a Personal Information Number (PIN), you are the person identified by the PIN and have not disclosed that PIN to anyone else
- that if you have purposely given false or misleading information, you may be fined $20,000, sent to prison, or both
